OPTIONAL WALKING TOUR TO SARONA

Sarona, a colony originally founded by the German Templers in the 19th century, later served as the place where the major political and strategic decisions of the young state of Israel were made. It is an impressive open air museum which offers history, architecture and preservation together with great coffee shops and shopping.

We offer an optional walking tour in Sarona, to discover its stories, people and secrets.

The 2-hour tour will take place at the end on the conference.

A special bus will be provided to take the participants to Sarona, where they will meet the guide.

Highlights:

- The old and new community house
- The old olive press
- The wineries
- Restoration of 150 year old wall paintings

Price: NIS 180 per person
